PLEASE ANSWER AT LEAST THREE OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

Based on the above mentioned criteria, how do you feel your nominee qualifies in the area of (attach additional pages as needed):

Direct Leadership: Julie is a natural leader, she is super organized, always there wanting to help and motivate people to have fun and feel part of a team or group.

Indirect Leadership: Julie is great even when she is not leading. She is a great assistant and understands how to get things done but, can be perfect in a supporting role.

Service: Julie attends as many charity events as possible. She is always on the go supporting many different charities and organizations.

Commitment: I have only known Julie for a little while but, I have watched her put 500% in everything she does. She could be in terrible back pain or sick but, that doesn't stop her commitment to the things that she has agreed to execute.

Character: I have only known Julie for a few years. I have had the privilege of learning what an awesome woman, friend, mother, and co-worker she is. I have had the honor to watch her shine in many different lights. She is always on the go, whether it be for herself, her career, or her daughter and family. She does it effortlessly and always in fashion. She will be there for anyone that needs her and does things from her heart. I am glad that our girls met in preschool a few years ago, and love that she has become part of my family's life. I hope this nomination helps her win "Woman of the Year."
